

Building for the future.

Congratulations to Old Republic's Elene Veveakis and the other CPCU designees for 2009. Investment in people isn't just a sideline. It's the foundation for our future.

At Old Republic, we know people make the difference. Dedicated construction professionals in safety, claims and underwriting set us apart from the rest. We call ourselves an "unparalleled partner" — construction experts with a solid work ethic, positive outlook, open communication and easy access to local decision-makers.
