

Safety Boot Recall

Dan Post Boot Company Recalls Safety Boots and Shoes

The Dan Post Boot Company has recalled their safety boots and shoes due to the risk of injury. The boots and shoes may fail to protect against impact. This recall involves McRae Industrial brand steel toe boots, static dissipative shoes and composite boots. There are seven styles of the McRae Industrial brand shoes included in the recall. The model numbers are MR85300, MR85394, MR47321, MR47616, MR87321, MR43002, and MR83310 printed on a tag on the lining of the boot or the tongue of the shoe. A detailed list can be found by clicking on the link below. The link will also provide additional details. All boots and shoes may be returned for a full refund.

Remedy: Consumers should immediately stop wearing the recalled boots and shoes and return to firm to receive a full refund.

Incidents/Injuries: The firm has received one report of a tire falling onto a consumer's foot while he was wearing his safety boots; resulting in a broken foot.

Sold At: Gerler and Son Inc., Grainger Inc., Safety Solutions Inc., Standup Rancher and other independent safety stores nationwide and online at Kohls.com, Steel-Toe-Shoes.com, Thewesterncompany.com, Workboots.com, from October 2013 through June 2017 for between $80 and $130.
